

442.

As a part of next year planning considering the overall development and growth of the students and their demands various committees are formed. These committees make discussion with the students and consider their demands and academic schedules of the year and make the planning.

As a planning for the year 2017-18 and make the campus green and beautiful; it was looked into whether the pest control treatment was made regularly or not and requested the management to make regular appointment of a gardener. To maintain the cleanliness of the campus new washrooms were constructed.

‘Drama Form’ is the part of the syllable and to give the practical knowledge of this form ‘seven day workshop on drama form’ was organized in the college. To increase awareness among the students and save them from suicide an awareness program on suicide was organized. For easy and fast communication among and with the students, a whatsApp group of the students was created. For all over development of the students the college signed the college signed MOUs with various organizations who do social and cultural activities.

To increase the creative power of the students, in collaboration with ‘Vartayan’ a series lectures of eleven episodes was organized where the contemporary and young short story writers read their stories and discussion with the students was made. It is decided to organize a seminar on folk songs and folk literature to preserve folk literature which is equally important with the classical literature.

With that it was decided to organize various resource person lectures. The faculty members are instructed to visit the hostel girls and it is decided to make communication with the management and organize academic, social, literary and cultural programs in the hostel.

In the DELL i.e. Digital English Language Laboratory and Home Science Labs. various educational charts and photos were displayed. To train the students to start their own business chocolate making workshop was organized in the college.

To increase the awareness about Home Science subject, in collaboration with the alumni and present students ‘Performance of Home Science’ will be organized.

“Basic English Grammar Workshop” was organized for the students. Required equipments were purchased for cooking classes and practical work.

The acquisition process of the required books, journals, reference books was completed. National- International Journals and ‘Shodhganga’ were subscribed. The students were informed about these magazines and were guided to make use of these magazines.

To motivate the students to participate in various games, the playground was prepared and players were motivated to participate in various sports competitions.

For the regular maintenance of the equipments and to maintain the cleanliness of the campus ‘annual maintenance system’ will be applied. According to the student strength of the classrooms the sitting capacity was checked and proper facility will be provided.

The management, faculty members and students came together, conducted meetings, formed committees and policies were formed to look into the above mentioned things.